Jazak Allahu Khayran for your help... and that sister that messaged me, that is ajeeb... I dunno what to do if I should continue to ask questions to see if she's a spy or just drop her completely... but Yusuf said that brother you gave us had very good information and so we are going to use him to help us...

Yusuf agreed that changing up our plan and going onto Italy then to Turkey is probably best. We're like 800ds short for us to make that change so we're trying to figure that part out still inshallah... but I wanted to put your mind and worries at ease. We're not telling anyone of our
